2021-2022 Title I School-Parent-Student Compact

The School Parent Compact will be jointly developed with parents and family members and the compact outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share in the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and the parents will build and develop partnerships to help children achieve the State's high standards (ESSA, Section 1116(d)).

Please read each section below. Each part tells about the jobs that the student, parent, and your child's school will do to help your child learn.
Families, thank you for supporting your child's learning!

Student

The student realizes education is important. He/she is the one responsible for his/her own success. Therefore, he/she agrees to carry out the following responsibilities to the best of his/her ability:

- Get to school on time every day
- Develop a positive attitude toward school
- Be responsible for completing homework on time
- Be cooperative by carrying out the teacher's instructions and ask for help when needed
- Do daily work that is neat and reflects the student's best effort
- Participate in online learning activities
- Be respectful to all school members and to school property
- Show Lion PRIDE at home, at school, and in the community

For the student:

I know that I must always do my best. I know my parents, teachers, and other adults want to help me, but I am the one who must do my best work.

- I will believe that I can learn. I believe that I will learn.
- I can be responsible for my behavior and choices.
- I will read every day outside of school time.
- I will work with my parents, teachers, and other adults to do my best.
- I will show Lion PRIDE:

Positive Attitude	Have a positive attitude.
Respect	Be respectful to adults at school, other students and school property.
Integrity	Do the right thing even when no one is looking.
Diversity	Recognize and respect differences in others.
Excellence	Do my best and take pride in my work.

Parent

The parent understands that participation in his/her student's education will help his/her achievement and attitude. Therefore, the parent will continue to carry out the following responsibilities to the best of his/her ability:

- Volunteering in their child's classroom
- Supporting their child's learning
- Participating, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their child and positive use of extracurricular time
- Create a home atmosphere that supports learning
- Support student participation in online learning activities
- Send the student to school on time, well-fed, and well-rested on a regular basis
- Attend school functions and conferences
- Encourage their child to show respect for all members of the school community and school property
- Review all school communications and respond promptly
- Model Lion PRIDE for their children

School

The school understands the importance of the school experience to every student and their role as educators and models. Therefore, the school agrees to carry out the following responsibilities to the best of their ability:

- Provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables the children served under this part to meet the challenging State academic standards
- Address the importance of communication between teachers and parents on an ongoing basis through, at a minimum—
 - parent-teacher conferences in elementary schools, at least annually, during which the compact shall be discussed as the compact relates to the individual child's achievement;
 - frequent reports to parents on their children's progress;
 - reasonable access to staff, opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child's class, and observation of classroom activities; and
 - ensuring regular two-way, meaningful communication between family members and school staff and, to the extent practicable, in a language that family members can understand. (ESSA, Section 1116(d)(1-2))
- Treat each child with dignity and respect
- Strive to address the individual needs of the student
- Acknowledge that parents are vital to the success of child and school
- Provide a safe, positive and healthy learning environment
- Assure every student access to quality learning experiences
- Assure that the school staff communicates clear expectations for performance to both students and parents
- Model Lion PRIDE for our students
